

ANDREW E. PIERCE
CAD/GIS/GPS & Field Technician

Professional Profile Mr. Pierce has over five years of professional experience working in the environmental field. After completing his education, he joined Moyse Environmental Services, Inc. and the environmental consulting field. The professional services that he provides include GPS mapping of site features; off-site GIS mapping; CAD production of site plans; septic system layout and drafting; preliminary wetland identification; vernal pool assessments and third-party inspections (3PI). The diversity of projects Andy has been involved with includes subdivisions, industrial parks, shopping malls, schools, utility transmission lines, wind power operations, transfer stations and land disposal of wastes and water/wastewater facilities. His primary duties include CAD/GIS, GPS mapping and processing, preliminary site investigations, third-party inspections, permit compliance monitoring and assisting with report documents and permit applications.

Education A.S., Computer Aided Drafting & Design
Eastern Maine Community College (2007)

Certifications /Licenses Maine DEP – Certified in Erosion & Sediment Control Practices
EMBSO Licensed Soccer Official

Special Training Computer Aided Drafting (CAD)
Geographical Information Systems (GIS)
Global Positioning Systems (GPS)
Soil Survey Field Work/Site Feature Mapping
Third-Party Inspections/Permit Compliance Monitoring
Wetland Mapping
Vernal Pool Identification and Delineation

Professional Memberships MEGUG - Maine GIS User Group
Associate Member - Maine Association of Site Evaluators

Achievements and Activities Enjoys soccer, golf, fishing and all Boston Sports teams